Until at least one (1) Resident Member has been admitted into membership, all five (5) directors shall be elected or appointed by the Non-Resident Members and, upon the admission into membership of at least one (1) Resident Member, one (1) of such directors shall resign and, thereafter, one (1) director shall be elected or appointed by the Resident Member(s) and four (4) directors shall be elected or appointed by the Non-Resident Members.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

5. (1) The directors shall be elected by the members from among the persons who are designated, as hereinafter provided, as nominees for election as directors of the Co-operative at the meeting in question and the voting on the election shall be by ballot in accordance with the Act. Only Resident Members shall be entitled to vote in respect of the persons nominated for election as the representative of the Resident Members on the board of directors and only Non-Resident Members shall be entitled to vote only in respect of the persons nominated for election as the representatives of the Non-Resident Members on the board. Each such Member shall be entitled to one (1) vote in respect of the election in which he or she is entitled to participate.

(2) If constituted, the Membership and Nominating Committee shall, prior to each meeting of members at which directors are to be elected, recommend to the board qualified candidates for election as directors of the Co-operative at such meeting and, if such committee is not constituted, the board shall propose qualified candidates for election. Not less than twenty (20) days prior to the said meeting, the board shall by notice to the members entitled to vote on the election of directors advise such members as to the identity of its proposed nominees and provide such members with the opportunity to nominate additional qualified candidates for such offices. Any such additional nominations shall be proposed by any one member entitled to vote on the election of directors and supported by four (4) other members who are entitled to vote on such election (none of whom shall be the proposed candidate), shall indicate the term of office for which the candidate is being nominated and shall be accompanied by the written statement of the candidate so nominated that the candidate is willing to stand for election as a director at such meeting, provided for greater certainty that all such proposed nominees for election as the representative on the board of Resident Members must be nominated and supported by Resident Members and all such proposed nominees for election as a representative on the board of Non-Resident Members must be nominated and supported by Non-Resident Members. Each such additional nominee shall, unless such additional nominee thereafter withdraws or is unable to serve as a director, be nominated for election as a director at the said members’ meeting.

(3) No person may be nominated for election as a director at a meeting of members at which directors are to be elected other than the board’s nominees and the additional nominees, if any, referred to in subsection (2) of this Section 5 where the nomination procedure set forth therein has been complied with in respect of such meeting.

6. (1) The Resident Members may, by resolution passed by at least two-thirds of the votes cast at a general meeting of such class of which notice specifying the intention to pass such a resolution has been given, remove any director elected by such class before the expiry of his or her term of office and may, by a majority of the votes cast at that meeting, elect any person in his or her stead for the remainder of the term.

(2) The Non-Resident Members may, by resolution passed by at least two-thirds of the votes cast at a general meeting of such class of which notice specifying the intention to pass such a resolution has been given, remove any director elected by such class before the expiry of his or her term of office and may, by a majority of the votes cast at that meeting, elect any person in his or her stead for the remainder of the term.

VACANCIES, BOARD OF DIRECTORS

7. Vacancies on the board of directors in respect of persons elected or appointed by Resident Members, however caused may, so long as a quorum of directors remains in office, be filled by the directors from among the qualified Resident Members of the Co-operative if they shall see fit to do; otherwise such vacancy shall be filled at the next annual meeting of the members at which directors are elected but if there is not a quorum of directors in office, the remaining directors shall forthwith call a meeting of the Resident Members entitled to vote to fill the vacancy. In the event of vacancies on the board of directors in respect of persons elected or appointed by Non-Resident Members, the remaining directors shall forthwith call a meeting of the Non-Resident Members entitled to vote to fill the vacancy. A director appointed or elected to fill a vacancy shall hold office for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor. If the number of directors is increased, a vacancy or vacancies, to the number of the authorized increase, shall thereby be deemed to have occurred which may be filled in the manner above provided.

QUORUM AND MEETINGS, BOARD OF DIRECTORS

8. A majority of the directors shall form a quorum for the transaction of business; provided that one director elected by each stakeholder group must be present to constitute a quorum. Except as otherwise required by law, the board may hold its meetings at such place or places as it may from time to time determine. No formal notice of any such meeting shall be necessary if all the directors are present or if those absent have signified their consent to the meeting being held in their absence. Directors’ meetings may be formally called by the President or by the Secretary on the direction in writing of two directors. Notice of such meetings shall be delivered, telephoned, or sent by facsimile to each director not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the meeting is to take place or shall be mailed to each director not less than seven (7) days before the meeting is to take place. The board may appoint a day or days in any month or months for regular meetings at an hour to be named and no notice of such regular meetings need be sent. A directors’ meeting may also be held, without notice, immediately following the annual meeting of the Co-operative. All votes at such meeting shall be taken by ballot if so demanded by any director present, but if no demand is made, the vote shall be taken in the usual way by assent or dissent. A declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has been carried and an entry to that effect in the minutes shall be admissible in evidence as prima facie proof of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution. In the absence of the President, his or her duties as Chairman of the meeting may be performed by a Vice-President or such other director as the board may from time to time appoint for the purpose.

(2) Without in any way derogating from the foregoing, the directors are expressly empowered, from time to time, to purchase, lease or otherwise acquire, alienate and sell securities, lands, buildings and other property, movable or immovable, real or personal, or any right or interest therein owned by the Co-operative, for such consideration and upon such terms and conditions as they may deem advisable.

12. The directors shall serve as such without remuneration, and no director shall directly or indirectly receive any profit from his or her position as such, provided that a director may be paid reasonable expenses incurred by him or her in the performance of his or her duties.

SUBMISSION OF CONTRACTS OR TRANSACTIONS TO MEMBERS FOR APPROVAL

13. The board in its discretion may submit any contract, act or transaction for approval or ratification at any annual meeting of members or at any general meeting of members called for the purpose of considering the same and, subject to the provisions of the Act, any such contract, act or transaction that shall be approved or ratified or confirmed by a resolution passed by a majority of the votes cast at any such meeting (unless any different or additional requirement is imposed by the Act or by the Articles or by this by-law or by any other by-law) shall be valid and as binding upon the Co-operative and upon all the members as though it had been approved, ratified or confirmed by every member of the Co-operative entitled to vote thereon.

INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS

14. Every director of the Co-operative and his or her heirs, executors and administrators, and estate and effects, respectively, shall from time to time and at all times be indemnified and saved harmless out of the funds of the Co-operative from and against:

15. Except as otherwise provided in the Act, no director or officer of the Co-operative shall be liable for the acts, receipts, neglects or defaults of any other director or officer or employee or for joining in any receipt or act for conformity or for any loss, damage or expense happening to the Co-operative through the insufficiency or deficiency of title to any property acquired by the Co-operative or for or on behalf of the Co-operative or for the insufficiency of any security in or upon which any of the money of or belonging to the Co-operative shall be placed out or invested or for any loss or damage arising from the bankruptcy, insolvency or tortious act of any person, firm or corporation with whom or which any of the moneys, securities or effects shall be lodged or deposited or for any loss, conversion, misapplication or misappropriation of or any damage resulting from any dealings with any money, securities or other assets belonging to the Co-operative or for any other loss or damage or misfortune whatsoever which may happen in the execution of the duties of his or her respective office or trust or in relation thereto unless the same shall happen by or through his or her own wrongful and wilful act or default. Nothing in this Section 15 shall be construed as relieving the directors or officers from any liability expressly imposed on them by the Act or any other statute. If any director or officer of the Co-operative shall be employed by or shall perform services for the Co-operative otherwise than as a director or officer or shall have an interest in a person, firm or corporation who is employed by or performs services for the Co-operative, the fact of his being a director or officer of the Co-operative shall not disentitle such director or officer or such person, as the case may be, from receiving proper remuneration for such services.

The board shall from time to time appoint a President and a Secretary (or a Secretary-Treasurer) and may appoint one or more Vice-Presidents (to which title may be added words indicating seniority or function), a Treasurer, a General Manager and such other officers as the board may determine from time to time, including one or more assistants to any of the officers so appointed.
